Committee member Sandy McGrew reported that a hybrid solution in cooperation with Cherokee County was not feasible and the County is not interested in that sort of arrangement.

Committee member Bill Grant reported that consolidation of the City's fire department with the County was very complicated; dependent upon today's meeting he will develop a cost comparison.

Chairman Glen Cummins, with the assistance of CFO Nathan Ingram and Fire Chief Dean Floyd, presented a 10 year projection on the costs to the City if it kept its fire department and built new stations.
