To Whom It May Concern,

I am the applicant filing for a conditional use permit for 570 East Main Street, Canton, Ga, 30114.

570 was originally a home built in 1950, but was moved back from the road in the 1980s. At that time, two additional single apartments were added beneath the home. At some point, the main house was zoned commercial.

It is our desire to return the top original home to residential status while leaving the two apartments below. This adjustment has very little effect on traffic, congestion or utilities. It simply means there will be one more option for residence in the DT Canton area while maintaining very affordable living options in the apartments.

Sincerely,

Jamie Foreman
